- Industrial Technology and Drama HSC Practical Marking

BOSTES markers for Industrial Technology - MultiMedia and Drama have been in the College this week to mark major works. Congratulations to all of the students involved on completing the work, and to their teachers Mr O'Brien and Mr O'Rourke for their ongoing guidance during the completion of the major works.

- Generation Art

For thirteen weeks Daisy Pike, Emily Blasig, Emily Hudson-Hitchens and Lili Carter participated in a program run by Bathurst Regional Council called Generation Art. Throughout these thirteen weeks the girls met every Wednesday afternoon each week learning something new. The focus was on the Bathurst Regional Art Gallery, local art and artists and the permanent collection the gallery owns. The four year 10 students worked with 7 other other students from Stannies, All Saints, Scots and Bathurst High and three local artists who served as mentors to the girls. The girls started the first weeks of the program with an introduction to various artworks, artists and exhibitions. Towards the mid way mark the girls and the other students involved split in pairs and began their major project for the program. This was to be a video based on the permanent collection but could be created anyway they wanted. This was worked on every Wednesday afternoon for the rest of the program. Generation Art was run by Emma Hill and Donna Matheson-Mitchell and was to assist Donna in an aspect of her studies. The girls thoroughly enjoyed the program and are all very pleased with their finished products, the videos will be launched on the 16th of September at the Bathurst Regional Art Gallery for the public to view.

- A Night for Hayley

A massive thanks to the musicians who performed for the large crowd up at Stannies on Saturday night. Gabrielle Whitwell, Madi Hodder, Sarah Walls, Eliza Tucker and Courtney Powell all performed with confidence and were rewarded with great acclaim from the appreciative audience. Thanks must also go to Oliver O'Toole and Ben McGrath who also performed with skill and confidence.

- A massive thanks to Niamh Sinclair and Lucy Goodfellow who helped Mr Hughes by singing at the St Philomena's Communion Mass on Sunday 28th, August. Niamh sang the psalm for the first time and did a wonderful job! Thanks for giving up your Sunday morning ladies.

- Still some exciting news on the way for those interested in Musical Theatre.....

There some very exciting developments that will be revealed shortly for 2017. Continue to keep an eye on this space and all will be revealed.
