

15 November 2017

Statement by Bishop of Bathurst
The Most Rev. Michael McKenna

Now that voters have expressed their opinions on changes to the marriage law, it is time for the Parliament to do its work. I trust that the assurances given, by both the Prime Minister and the Leader of the Opposition, that any legislation would not impinge on religious liberty, will be respected.

I would encourage everyone to work together in a spirit of cooperation for social harmony and the common good.

+Michael McKenna
Bishop of the Diocese of Bathurst

ENDS

For further information, please contact Kimbalee Clews, Communications Coordinator, Catholic Diocese of Bathurst ph: 02 6334 6400 or mobile: 0407 888 407