

VAULTAIRE SHOW TEAM AT THE SYDNEY ROYAL EASTER SHOW 2018

Fleur (Year 10) and Ivy Sykes (Year 7) were lucky enough to be selected for the VaultAire Show Team to perform at the Sydney Royal Easter Show this year. They were part of the Main Arena Spectacular evening performances and daily midday vaulting demonstrations to showcase equestrian vaulting.

Fleur and Ivy, along with Imogen Murphy (Year 10), are all members of Bathurst and District Vaulting, with Imogen participating as a groom for the VaultAire Show Team.

Equestrian Vaulting is a combination of dance and gymnastics on a horse that is walking, trotting or cantering whilst being lunged. Both Fleur and Ivy performed at canter for this show.

The 2018 Royal Easter Show theme was Circus and the girls performed every evening in the show with their horse Noah and mum Gina, who lunged Noah. They were in a team of up to 20 vaulters from across NSW and QLD and performed each night in front of crowds of up to 25,000 people.

It was a once in a life time opportunity to perform in this setting and the girls and their horses performed beautifully.
