

Welcome to the Catholic Parish of St Michael's
Dunedoo, Coolah, Elong Elong, Mendooran
Diocese of Bathurst

We gather here today with an awareness of the primacy of the First Peoples of this land on the boundary of the Gamilaraay and Wiradjuri people, who have been custodians of this country for many thousands of years.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C
7th July 2019

FIRST READING: Isaiah 66:10-14

I will send toward Jerusalem peace like a river.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Cry out with joy to God all the earth,
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise.
Say to God: 'How tremendous your deeds!

'Before you all the earth shall bow;
shall sing to you, sing to your name!
Come and see the works of God,
tremendous his deeds among men.

He turned the sea into dry land,
they passed through the river dry-shod.
Let our joy then be in him;
he rules for ever by his might.

Come and hear, all who fear God.
I will tell what he did for my soul.
Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer
nor withhold his love from me. (R.)

SECOND READING: Galatians 6:14-18

The marks I carry on my body are those of Jesus Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!
May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts,
and the fullness of his message live within you.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Luke 10:1-12. 17-20

Your peace will rest upon him.

Mass

Friday 12th July at 10.00am for Terrence Anthony Sheridan

Those we love
don't go away, they walk beside us
everyday. Unseen, unheard, but always
near, still loved,
still missed and
held so dear.

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate (C)

In Jewish tradition 'Satan' is the name given to the evil spirit who accuses and prosecutes human beings before God, demanding the strongest penalties, unmitigated by Mercy. Jesus had a vision in which he saw 'Satan fall like lightning from Heaven'. Who takes Satan's place?

The answer is the 'Paraclete', a Greek word for an Advocate. This is one of the roles of the Holy Spirit who pleads on our behalf for Mercy which, as Shakespeare put it, then falls on us 'as the gentle rain from Heaven'.

As disciples, we have to imitate the Paraclete, not Satan. We have to temper our drive to see 'the punishment fit the crime'. How often do we relish seeing a person squirm with no offer of a way out, no hint of mercy or forgiveness so that he or she can draw breath, undo some of the damage done, and get back on track to a better life?

We might pause for a moment to thank God that our names are not being listed by Satan in an indictment but rather, through the Holy Spirit, are being entered in the Book of the Saved so that we might 'Rejoice, for your names are written in Heaven'.

Apostleship of the Sea

Next week is Sea Sunday, when the church prays for all those who live and work at sea. There will be an Appeal for Stella Maris, Apostleship of the Sea, the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church.

The Appeal provides practical and spiritual support to seafarers visiting our ports. As it is dependent on voluntary donations, please give generously. For more information about its work, visit www.aos-australia.org.

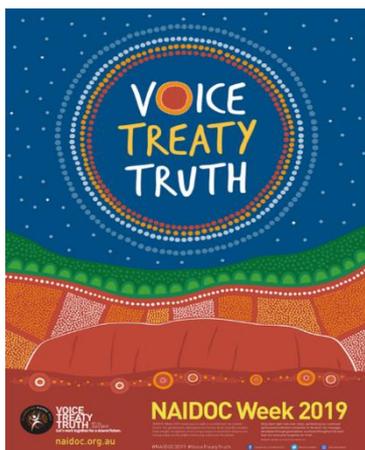

Parishes on Mission: is an opportunity for each parish of the Diocese to come together and share the wonderful things they are already doing, as well as learn about other parishes innovative ways of connecting with those outside our worshipping community.

Input on the day will cover many areas including how to welcome and engage with new people, ministry to the marginalised as well as tools for evangelisation. Speakers will include:

- Lorraine McCarthy, Alpha Australia: "Is there more?"
- Sheree Talbot, Beyond Barbed Wire: "When I was in prison you visited me"
- Pastor Gavin Brett, Orange Ministry Centre: "Connecting for Mission"

Why not be part of our parish group attending this important opportunity on 27th July at Kenna Hall Orange from 10am - 3pm.

NAIDOC Week 7th July - 14th July

NAIDOC Week celebrations are held across Australia each July to celebrate the history, culture and achievements of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

NAIDOC is celebrated not only in Indigenous communities, but by Australians from all walks of life. The week is a great opportunity to participate in a range of activities and to support your local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community.

VOICE. TREATY. TRUTH.
Let's work together for a shared future.

Planned Giving

As we have reached the end on another financial year, we express our sincere gratitude to all parishioners who have supported our parish financially over this past year. Times are difficult for a few families, yet these families continue to honour their commitment. Without your financial support for our parish we cannot continue to do what we are called by God to do - look after the pastoral life and outreach of our parish which is our most important ministry. Thank you very much.

Catholic Education, Diocese of Bathurst invites you to attend Praying the Mass - Prayer, Nourishment and Transformation

presented by Professor Gerard Moore

This short course is a day for teachers in Catholic schools, Catechists and other parishioners and will:

- Engage you as you explore the different parts of the Mass
- Offer some historical background to the liturgy
- Take you into current practice
- Reveal the pastoral sensitivities in our celebration
- Open up the way the Mass is arrayed to transform us and renew us.

It will be repeated in three locations across the Diocese:

BATHURST: 28 August - St Joseph's Heritage and Conference Centre, Tenison Woods Ave, Perthville

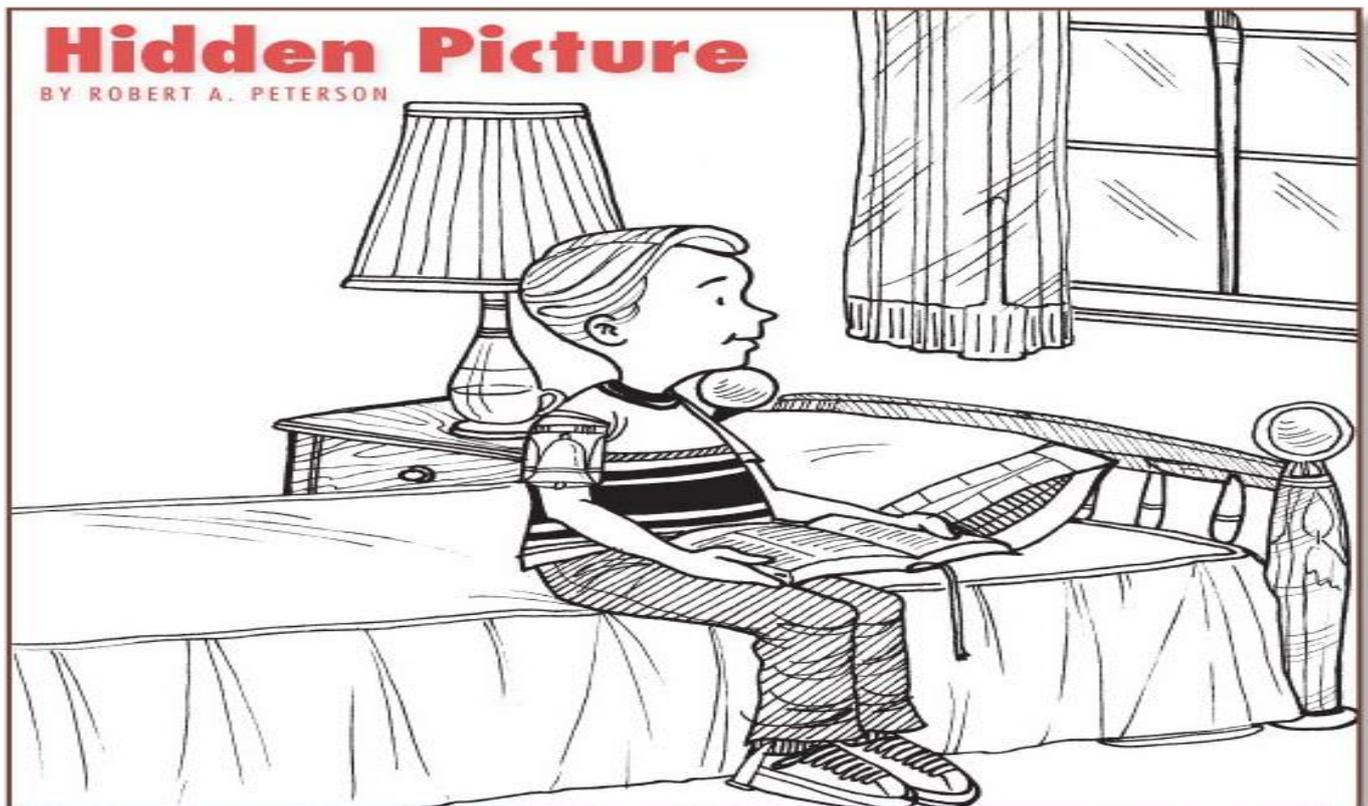

ORANGE: 29 August - Catherine McAuley Primary School, Hill Street, Orange

DUBBO: 30 August - St Brigid's Parish Hall, Brisbane Street, Dubbo

Time: 9.30am to 3.00pm Cost: FREE

This boy is reading his scriptures. He knows that scripture study invites the power of the Holy Ghost into his life and helps him keep his baptismal covenants.
